

Fourth Floor Airport Authority Office Building Renovation

Lambert-St. Louis International Airport (LSIA)

---

Location

St. Louis, Missouri

Construction Completion

2006

Construction Cost

$2 million

DMA Services Provided

Architecture

Lambert St. Louis International Airport (LSIA) Authority consists of the Airport Commission, Airport Director, and a complement of 550 full-time employees assigned to oversee the planning, development, and operations of LSIA. This project included interior renovations of offices for Airport Planning and Development, Disadvantaged Business Enterprise, Information Technology, and Professional Consultants.

David Mason & Associates provided complete design bidding and construction period services for renovations to the 4th Floor of the Airport Authority Office Building.

Services included interior architectural design services for all Tenant Finish Out. Management of multiple subconsultants and construction administration was performed for this project.

