In 1998, the YMCA Performing Arts Center on Clay Street, which opened in 1996, became part of the Monsanto Family YMCA branch. The center houses the YMCA Boys Choir, modeled after the Harlem Boys Choir, a computer learning resource facility, and programs from Positive Steps dancing to tumbling and more.

David Mason & Associates provided architectural design, structural and civil engineering services for this 18,000 square-foot educational and recreational addition to the existing facility.
